Lemont Fire Chief Receives Statewide Honors

The Illinois Fire Inspectors Association presented its highest recognition on Friday October 23rd, 2015 to Fire Chief George Rimbo of the Lemont Fire District. Chief Rimbo received the IFIA's "Fire Chief of the Year" Award at the group's annual Fire Prevention Week luncheon held at Medinah Banquet Hall, in Addison, IL. The fire chief's award is presented to a Chief Officer who is dedicated to making a difference in their department's fire and life safety education and prevention efforts; building a safer community. The nomination was submitted by the Lemont Fire Prevention Bureau. Chief Rimbo is a lifelong resident of Lemont and a 25 year veteran of the Fire District who has worked his way through the ranks. Chief Rimbo has embraced the Fire Prevention Bureau principals and is a true believer in sound fire prevention and public education programs. Congratulations Chief Rimbo.
